An act to amend Sections 1923.2 and 1923.5 of the Civil Code, relating to reverse mortgages.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 329, as amended, Feuer. Reverse mortgages.

Existing law defines and regulates reverse mortgage loans and provides a disclosure notice that a lender must provide an applicant, which informs the applicant that a reverse mortgage is a complex financial arrangement and advises the applicant of the wisdom of seeking financial counseling before entering the agreement. Existing law prohibits a lender from referring a borrower to anyone for the purchase of an annuity. Existing law requires a lender to refer a prospective borrower to a housing counseling agency for counseling, as specified, prior to accepting a final and complete application for a reverse mortgage or assessing any fees.

This bill would enact the Reverse Mortgage Elder Protection Act of 2009. The bill would prohibit a lender or any other person who participates in the origination of the mortgage from participating in, being associated with, or employing any party that participates in or is associated with any other financial or insurance activity, as provided, except as specified. This bill would also prohibit a lender or any other person who participates in the origination of the mortgage from referring a prospective borrower to anyone for the purchase of other financial or insurance products, except as specified. The bill would require the lender to provide the prospective borrower with a list of not fewer than 10 nonprofit counseling agencies in the state that have been approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for counseling, as provided. ~~The bill would grant borrowers the right to cancel a reverse mortgage within 30 days for any reason and would require a lender to provide a notice to this effect.~~ The bill would require a lender to provide a borrower with a checklist specifying issues the borrower should discuss with a reverse mortgage counselor and would require that the checklist be signed by the counselor, if the counseling is done in person, and the prospective borrower, with a copy provided to the borrower. The bill would prohibit approval of the loan application until the signed checklist is provided to the lender.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the Reverse Mortgage
- 2 Elder Protection Act of 2009.
- 3 SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares the following:
- 4 (a) A reverse mortgage is a loan that allows a homeowner to
- 5 convert home equity into tax-free cash payments. More than 90
- 6 percent of all reverse mortgages are obtained through the Home
- 7 Equity Conversion Mortgage (HECM) program sponsored by the
- 8 United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- 9 Many senior citizens use reverse mortgage payments to supplement
- 10 retirement income or pay medical expenses. Although the HECM
- 11 program has been in existence since 1989, the program has seen
- 12 rapid growth only in the past few years. As the population ages,
- 13 this growth rate is expected to accelerate. The growth rate is also
- 14 expected to increase as sales agents and lenders turn from the
- 15 declining subprime and conventional mortgage market to the
- 16 rapidly growing market for reverse mortgages.
- 17 (b) According to the American Association of Retired Persons
- 18 (AARP) and other senior citizen groups, reverse mortgages are

1 often a valuable financial tool for senior citizens who are “equity 2 rich but cash poor.” However, senior groups also note that the 3 rapid expansion of reverse mortgages has been accompanied by 4 aggressive marketing and reports of abuse, especially when reverse 5 mortgages are marketed along with annuities, long-term life 6 insurance, or other financial investment products. Because reverse 7 mortgages erode equity in what is typically the primary asset of 8 most senior citizens, the AARP recommends that senior citizens 9 should weigh all alternatives before considering a reverse mortgage.
10 The AARP strongly advises against using the proceeds of a reverse 11 mortgage for the purchase of annuities or other financial 12 investments, since the high cost of obtaining a reverse mortgage 13 often exceeds any likely returns.

14 (c) As a number of recent lawsuits and media reports in 15 California make clear, the inappropriate marketing of reverse 16 mortgages and ancillary financial products to senior citizens is 17 growing, often creating substantial loss in personal estates and 18 home equity. Existing law currently provides little recourse for 19 senior citizens who ill-advisedly, and without full understanding, 20 purchased an otherwise legitimate product. In enacting the Reverse 21 Mortgage Elder Protection Act of 2009, it is not the intent of the 22 Legislature to discourage the use of reverse mortgages, which 23 often provide substantial benefits to senior citizens. Rather, 24 anticipating the continued rapid growth in the reverse mortgage 25 market, the Reverse Mortgage Elder Protection Act of 2009 seeks 26 to ensure that senior citizens will make informed decisions and 27 that persons who offer, sell, or arrange the sale of reverse 28 mortgages to senior citizens will act in the best interest of a 29 sometimes vulnerable population.

30 SEC. 3. Section 1923.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

31 1923.2. A reverse mortgage loan shall comply with all of the 32 following requirements:

33 (a) Prepayment, in whole or in part, shall be permitted without 34 penalty at any time during the term of the reverse mortgage loan.
35 For the purposes of this section, penalty does not include any fees, 36 payments, or other charges that would have otherwise been due 37 upon the reverse mortgage being due and payable.

38 (b) A reverse mortgage loan may provide for a fixed or 39 adjustable interest rate or combination thereof, including compound 40 interest, and may also provide for interest that is contingent on the 1 value of the property upon execution of the loan or at maturity, or 2 on changes in value between closing and maturity.

3 (c) A reverse mortgage may include costs and fees that are 4 charged by the lender, or the lender's designee, originator, or 5 servicer, including costs and fees charged upon execution of the 6 loan, on a periodic basis, or upon maturity.

7 (d) If a reverse mortgage loan provides for periodic advances 8 to a borrower, these advances shall not be reduced in amount or 9 number based on any adjustment in the interest rate.

10 (e) A lender who fails to make loan advances as required in the 11 loan documents, and fails to cure an actual default after notice as 12 specified in the loan documents, shall forfeit to the borrower treble 13 the amount wrongfully withheld plus interest at the legal rate.

14 (f) The reverse mortgage loan may become due and payable 15 upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

16 (1) The home securing the loan is sold or title to the home is 17 otherwise transferred.

18 (2) All borrowers cease occupying the home as a principal 19 residence, except as provided in subdivision (g).

20 (3) Any fixed maturity date agreed to by the lender and the 21 borrower occurs.

22 (4) An event occurs which is specified in the loan documents 23 and which jeopardizes the lender's security.

24 (g) Repayment of the reverse mortgage loan shall be subject to 25 the following additional conditions:

26 (1) Temporary absences from the home not exceeding 60 27 consecutive days shall not cause the mortgage to become due and 28 payable.

29 (2) Extended absences from the home exceeding 60 consecutive 30 days, but less than one year, shall not cause the mortgage to become 31 due and payable if the borrower has taken prior action which 32 secures and protects the home in a manner satisfactory to the 33 lender, as specified in the loan documents.

34 (3) The lender's right to collect reverse mortgage loan proceeds 35 shall be subject to the applicable statute of limitations for written 36 loan contracts. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the 37 statute of limitations shall commence on the date that the reverse 38 mortgage loan becomes due and payable as provided in the loan 39 agreement.

(4) The lender shall prominently disclose in the loan agreement any interest rate or other fees to be charged during the period that commences on the date that the reverse mortgage loan becomes due and payable, and that ends when repayment in full is made.

(h) The first page of any deed of trust securing a reverse mortgage loan shall contain the following statement in 10-point boldface type: “This deed of trust secures a reverse mortgage loan.”

(i) A lender or any other person that participates in the origination of the mortgage shall not require an applicant for a reverse mortgage to purchase an annuity as a condition of obtaining a reverse mortgage loan.

(j)

(1) The lender or any other person that participates in the origination of the mortgage shall not do either of the following:

(1)

(A) Participate in, be associated with, or employ any party that participates in or is associated with any other financial or insurance activity, unless the lender maintains procedural safeguards designed to ensure that individuals participating in the origination of the mortgage shall have no involvement with, or incentive to provide the prospective borrower with, any other financial or insurance product.

~~(2) Refer the prospective borrower to anyone for the purchase of an annuity or other financial or insurance product.~~

(B) Refer the borrower to anyone for the purchase of an annuity or other financial or insurance product prior to the closing of the reverse mortgage or before the expiration of the right of the borrower to rescind the reverse mortgage agreement.

(2) This subdivision does not prevent a lender from offering or referring borrowers for title insurance, hazard, flood, or other peril insurance, or other similar products that are customary and normal under a reverse mortgage loan.

(k) Prior to accepting a final and complete application for a reverse mortgage the lender shall provide the borrower with a list of not fewer than 10 counseling agencies that are approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development to engage in reverse mortgage counseling as provided in Subpart B of Part 214 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulation. The counseling agency shall not receive any compensation, either directly or indirectly, from the lender or from any other person or

1 entity involved in originating or servicing the mortgage or the sale 2 of annuities, investments, long-term care insurance, or any other 3 type of financial or insurance product. This subdivision does not 4 prevent a counseling agency from receiving financial assistance 5 that is unrelated to the offering or selling of a reverse mortgage 6 loan and that is provided by the lender as part of charitable or 7 philanthropic activities.

8 (l) A lender shall not accept a final and complete application 9 for a reverse mortgage loan from a prospective applicant or assess 10 any fees upon a prospective applicant without first receiving a 11 certification from the applicant or the applicant's authorized 12 representative that the applicant has received counseling from an 13 agency as described in subdivision (k). The certification shall be 14 signed by the borrower and the agency counselor, and shall include 15 the date of the counseling and the name, address, and telephone 16 number of both the counselor and the borrower. Electronic 17 facsimile copy of the housing counseling certification satisfies the 18 requirements of this subdivision. The lender shall maintain the 19 certification in an accurate, reproducible, and accessible format 20 for the term of the reverse mortgage.

21 (m) A lender shall not make a reverse mortgage loan without 22 first complying with, or in the case of brokered loans ensuring 23 compliance with, the requirements of Section 1632, if applicable.

24 ~~(n) The borrower may rescind any reverse mortgage within 30~~ 25 ~~days of execution by providing written notice to the lender. Any~~ 26 ~~payments received in connection with the reverse mortgage shall~~ 27 ~~be returned within 15 days of rescission.~~

28 SEC. 4. Section 1923.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

29 1923.5. (a) No reverse mortgage loan application shall be 30 taken by a lender unless the loan applicant has received from the 31 lender, prior to receiving counseling, the following plain language 32 statement in conspicuous 16-point type or larger:

28 (b) (1) In addition to the plain statement notice described in 29 subdivision (a), no reverse mortgage loan application shall be taken 30 by a lender unless the lender provides the prospective borrower, 31 prior to his or her meeting with a counseling agency on reverse 32 mortgages, with a written checklist which conspicuously alerts the 33 prospective borrower, in 12-point type or larger, that he or she 34 should discuss with the agency counselor the following issues:

35 (A) How unexpected medical or other events that cause the 36 prospective borrower to move out of the home, either permanently 37 or for more than one year, earlier than anticipated will impact the 38 total annual loan cost of the mortgage.

39 (B) The extent to which the prospective borrower's financial 40 needs would be better met by options other than a reverse

1 mortgage, including, but not limited to, less costly home equity 2 lines of credit, property tax deferral programs, or governmental 3 aid programs.

4 (C) Whether the prospective borrower intends to use the 5 proceeds of the reverse mortgage to purchase an annuity or other 6 insurance products and the consequences of doing so.

7 (D) The effect of repayment of the loan on nonborrowing 8 residents of the home after all borrowers have died or permanently 9 left the home.

10 (E) The prospective borrower's ability to finance routine or 11 catastrophic home repairs, especially if maintenance is a factor 12 that may determine when the mortgage becomes payable.

13 (F) The impact that the reverse mortgage may have on the 14 prospective borrower's tax obligations, eligibility for government 15 assistance programs, and the effect that losing equity in the home 16 will have on the borrower's estate and heirs.

17 (2) The checklist required in paragraph (1) shall be signed by 18 the agency counselor, if the counseling is done in person, and by 19 the prospective borrower and returned to the lender along with the 20 certification of counseling required under subdivision (l) of Section 21 1923.2, and the loan application shall not be approved until the 22 signed checklist is provided to the lender. A copy of the checklist 23 shall be made provided to the borrower.
